

W.G. PLUMER

MARY BLAINE

E.G. MUNTLEY

J. FARRELL

AS SUNG BY THE

W. ROARK

J. MURPHY

SABLE HARMONISTS.

N. KNEASS

WORDS WRITTEN

BY

FRED HUNT

HARMONISED AND ARRANGED FOR THE

PIANO FORTE

BY

NELSON KNEASS

St. Louis, Mo.
Published by

Nathl Phillips
42 Market St

Allegro

Moderato

Entered according to Act of Congress in 1867 by Nathl Phillips in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Missouri

VOICE

I once did love a yellow gal Ill tell you all her

PIANO

FORTE

name. She came from old virginia and they call her Mary Blane

TENOR

Den farewell Den farewell Den farewell Mary Blane oh do take care yourself my dear In

ALTO

2nd TENOR

Den farewell

BASSO

Den farewell

PIANO

FORTE

ff pp

commg back again. den farewell den farewell den farewell Mary Blane. oh do take care your coming back
coming back
coming back

self my dear. Im coming back again.
self my dear
self my dear
self my dear

- 2 When fust I saw her lubly Face
My ffections she did gain.
And oft I hasten to de place
Where dwell't my Mary Blane.
Farewell &c
- 3 Weliv'd together many years
And she was still the same.
In joy and sorrow smiles and tears
I lov'd my Mary Blane.
Farewell &c
- 4 Unto de Woods I went one day
Ahunting ob de game.
De Indians came unto my hut
And stole my Mary Blane.
Farewell &c
- 5 De time rolled on it greived me much
For meno tidings came.
I hunt dem woods both night and day
Till I found my Mary Blane.
Farewell &c
- 6 I took her home unto my hut
My heart was in great pain.
But afore de sun did shine next day
Gone dead was Mary Blane.
Farewell &c

